

LOHMANN LSL-ULTRA LITE

LAYERS

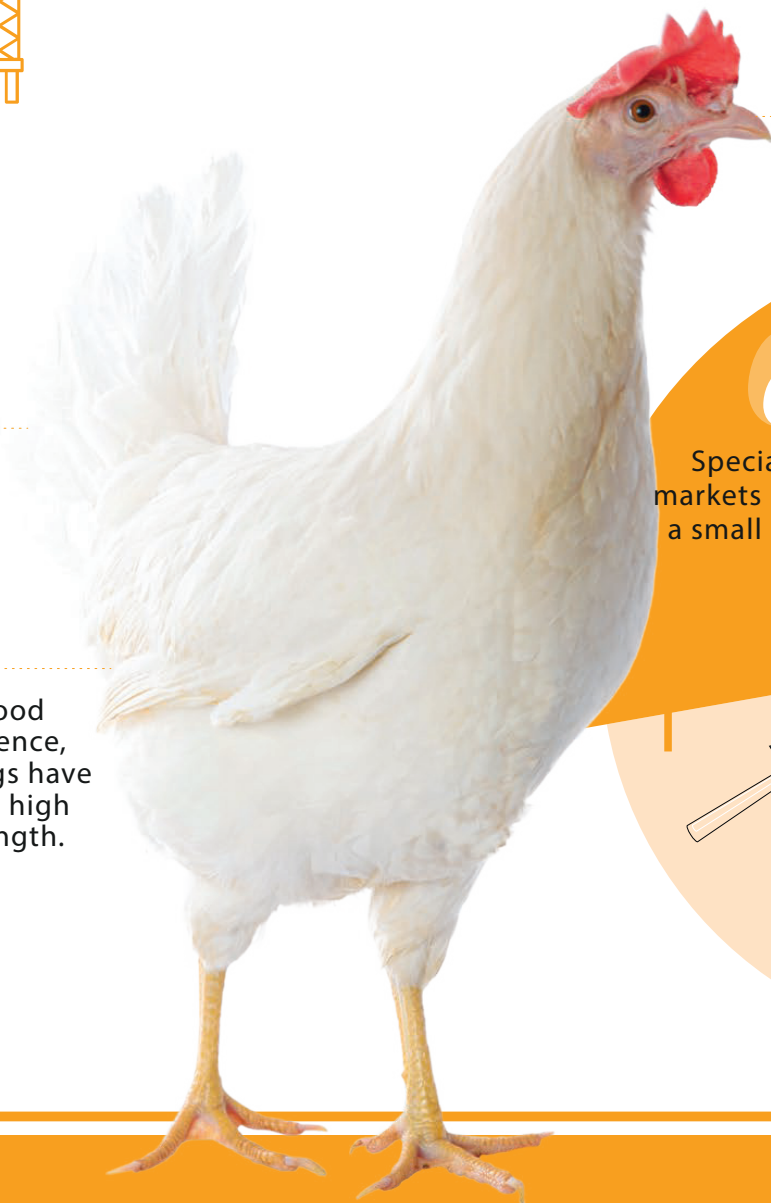

Cage Housing

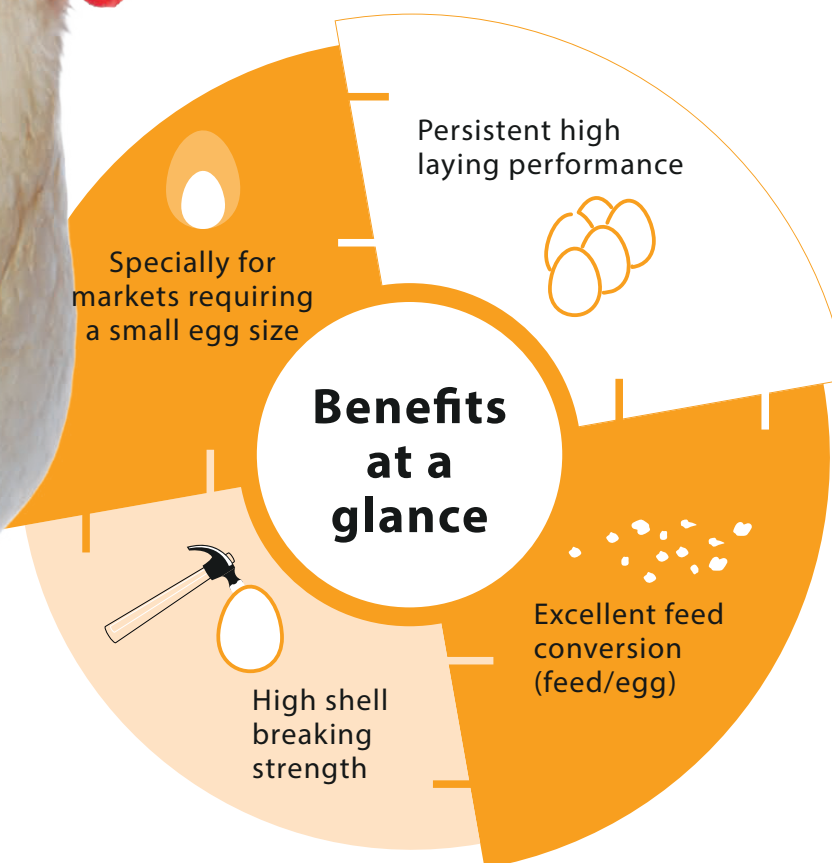

LOHMANN LSL-ULTRA LITE is the white-layer with the lowest egg weight and an increased number of eggs.

With a very good laying persistence, the white-eggs have a long-lasting high breaking strength.

This hen with a very high laying performance and excellent feed conversion has been particularly developed for markets which require a low egg weight.

Breeding for success... together!
